

PROCEDURES

Each high school instrumental music teacher is asked to:

- Select ten or more of the best and most reliable brass and percussion musicians who are interested in accepting this responsibility. All brass students should be able to play the B flat concert and chromatic scale, be able to produce a good tone and have an understanding of rhythm. The All-District Band staff will also assess students to determine placement and eligibility in the program.
- Return a completed application with signed parent consent form (Attachment A) and transportation form (Attachment B) for each selected student. Forms must be submitted no later than Saturday, November 2, 2019. Please verify grades for all students.
- Inform students who play marching percussion (snare drum, tenor drums, bass drum and cymbals) that auditions will be held on Saturday, September 21, 2019, at El Sereno MS.

Teachers of students who wish to apply as drum majors, tall flags, and shield carriers are asked to:

- Identify students who may wish to audition for these positions.
- Provide a copy of Attachment A (Application for Membership in the All-District High School Honor Marching Band 2019-2020 Season) and Attachment B (Parent's or Guardian's Permission for Field Trip & Authorization for Medical Care) and the tryout information to interested students.
- Return a completed application with signed parent consent form (Attachment A) and transportation form (Attachment B) for each selected student. Forms must be submitted by no later than Saturday, November 2, 2019. Please verify grades for all students.
